1. Policy statement

1.1 The MAN Commercial code of conduct sets out the minimum behavior we expect from our employees and supply chain partners. This policy deals with the specific issues associated with modern slavery and human trafficking.

1.2 Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of an individual's fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced or compulsory labor and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain. We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and we are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure modern slavery is not taking place anywhere within the business MAN Commercial or in any of our supply chains.

1.3 We are also committed to ensuring there is transparency in our own business and in our approach to tackling modern slavery throughout our supply chains, consistent with our disclosure obligations under the Modern Slavery Act 2015. We expect the same high standards from all of our contractors, suppliers and other business partners, and as part of our contracting processes, we will include specific prohibitions concerning modern slavery, whether of adults or children, and we expect that our suppliers will hold their own suppliers to the same high standards. MAN Commercial's approach will be to work with our supply chain partners to improve performance standards but ultimately we may have to review whether we can continue on-going relationships if our standards cannot be met.

1.4 By 2021 MAN Commercial has committed to 100% of the commodities we source directly being compliant with our standards for socially and environmentally responsible procurement. We will seek to influence our subcontractors to do the same.
